CONTRACT NUMBER VA-050912-AGLT
BETWEEN
VIRGINIA INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES AGENCY
AND
Applied Global Technologies

Exhibit A is hereby incorporated into and made an integral part of Contract Number VA-050912-AGLT("Contract") between the Virginia Information Technologies Agency ("VITA" or "Commonwealth" or "State") and Applied Global Technologies("AGLT One" or "Contractor"). In the event of any discrepancy between this Exhibit A and Contract No. VA-050912-AGLT, the provisions of Contract No. VA-050912-AGLT shall control.

The acceptable codes for Column A are as follows:

Y = "Yes" - You can fully meet the requirement as documented. Include documentation showing how you will fulfill the requirement, including any alliances with other suppliers. Indicate in Column B a description or if necessary, cross-reference to the appropriate section of your proposal.

F = "Yes, Future" - You will be able to fully meet this requirement for VITA in the near future. Provide a proposed start date and cross-reference any attached documentation in Column B.

N = "No" - You cannot meet the requirement and you have no plans at the present time to be in the position to meet this need.

In a few instances, we have posed some open-ended questions in situations where the answer will not be a yes or no. Please provide adequate information to allow VITA to properly evaluate your proposal.

Audio Visual Products:

It is the intention of the Commonwealth to have Offerors propose a discount percentage (either by complete catalog or categories within a catalog) to current catalog prices listed on a referenced, publicly available price list or a discount from a publicly available manufacturer's suggested retail price for audio visual equipment, accessories, components, multimedia furniture, warranty, and maintenance for the products. In addition, Offerors should propose solutions for full installation / integrator services of that equipment so Authorized Users may have one source for their complete audio visual needs.

The Offeror shall list the manufacturer(s) and provide their current catalog(s) for audio visual equipment and accessories it is proposing for this RFP. A Price Schedule must be completed for each manufacturer reflecting discount information. The catalogs and price lists shall be used solely for purposes of defining the product offerings and prices to apply discounts. Any terms and conditions contained in the catalogs or price lists or future versions of these documents shall have no effect in any contract awarded by the Commonwealth of Virginia as a result of this RFP. Nothing in these documents or future versions of these documents shall be deemed to limit or clarify any obligation of the contractor stated in this RFP, nor shall it be deemed to impose any obligation on the Commonwealth.

The Offeror must be able to provide all products and services proposed to all locations throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia.

- 2 Authorized User Procedures for Delivery Order Processing
 - 2.1 General: Customer notifies AGT of requirement. AGT Sales Manager and Sales Engineer develop solution for customer's requirement.
 - 2.2 Equipment Only Ordering: The procedure is the same as listed below in 2.3-2.6, only there is no requirement for Section 3, Installation and Integration.
 - 2.3 Request for Quotation Submission: Customer submits formal RFQ to AGT Sales.
 - 2.4 Request for Quotation Response: Solution entered into AGT proprietary CRM (Customer Relationship Manager) database system. Non-AGT manufactured products within database are verified with manufacturer. Pricing is determined and entered. Quote (with CRM generated quote#) is provided to customer.
 - 2.5 Delivery Order Issuance: Customer places order (based on quote) and faxes or emails to Sales Account Manager. Sales Account Manager (SAM) sends to AGT Order Management department. AGT Order Management (OM) checks order for accuracy by comparing to quote within CRM. At this point, OM creates File on Order, attaches OPC – Order Processing Checksheet to the File, and the actual order processing begins (see OPC on next page). OM checks product availability and notifies SAM and Customer of any availability issues and expected delivery dates. OM Orders equipment and services as per the PO and approved CRM quote. Order numbers and the tracking numbers for shipping are recorded in CRM. The shipments are tracked to ensure arrival at correct destination.

- 2.6 Delivery Order Modifications: Any delivery order modifications must be reported to SAM. If there is sufficient cause, SAM will request a change order from Customer. SAM will forward the Change Order to OM for processing, which will be processed as described in Sections 2.1-2.5.

3 Installation and Integration

3.1 Pre-Installation/Integration Planning:

Working closely with competing manufacturers in the industry, AGT provides its customers with best-of-breed solutions. The basic service offerings include installation, training, enhanced maintenance and service warranties.

How the installation and integration of new hardware is performed sets the foundation for a particular piece of equipment's life cycle. It is imperative that new equipment is installed properly and integrated well into its environment. Regardless of whether the equipment is being integrated with other multi-media equipment or singularly installed into a specific environment (conference room, auditorium, training room, etc.), particular consideration must be placed on functionality, ease-of-use, and aesthetics. At AGT Pre- Installation and Integration Planning includes:

- Audio/Visual Equipment Design
- Equipment Installation
- User Orientation Training
- System Testing
- System Acceptance
- Upon approval of the Project Schedule and Notice of Site Readiness forms, equipment installation will begin as planned. Install tasks include:
- Unpacking of original shipping containers
- Physical inspection of equipment prior to installation
- Installing and configuring equipment as per customer requirements
- Connection to the provided network interface device
- Installation of surge protectors in the power line
- Installation of any peripheral equipment with provided cables/extender cables
- Route and tie wrap all cables in accordance with provided site survey documentation
- Perform power up tests, initial system configuration, and system diagnostics
- Verify the system is operating in accordance with all provided specifications in the loop back mode
- Completion of all required forms and licenses
- Point-to-point conference with AGT to verify network operation of public lines
- Point-to-point/multipoint conference with other customer operational sites
- Ensure area is cleaned and trash removed and placed for pickup at a customer designated site

3.2 Coordination with Ordering Authorized User (see 3.1)

- 3.3 Schedules and Milestones: AGT's Customer Relationship Management (CRM) uses tools for email notification and alerts if process points are due and responses have not happened. It also creates notifications when new process points are created (i.e. the clock has started). It provides personnel scheduling tools to ensure the right people are available at the right time. AGT's CRM prevents individual steps in the work flow process from getting delayed, so the customer is assured that the job will be done on time. For example, site readiness, equipment delivery and installation must all happen in synch. AGT's CRM tool makes sure this happens and expected milestones are met.

3.4 Site Availability

3.5 Inspection and Acceptance At the completion of the installation and training, acceptance testing is done with customer personnel to verify that the system operates as specified. Any customer concerns will be documented and addressed at this time. The acceptance testing has the following objectives:

- Verify all hardware is installed and operational, all cables tie-wrapped and marked, and area cleaned
- Verify all software is installed, operational and of current issue
- Verify all required documentation is present
- Ensure all training criteria have been met to customer satisfaction
- Establish a point-to-point/multipoint conference to demonstrate functionality of system
- Upon completion of acceptance testing, AGT will present a Customer Acceptance Form to be signed by AGT and the Authorized User.

3.6 Training: AGT maintains current certifications for multiple video conferencing and network equipment manufacturers. Certifications include:

- Polycom Video Division- Platinum Certified
- Polycom Networks (MCUs)
- TANDBERG Systems- Platinum Certified
- Cisco (CCIE, CCNP, CCDP, and CCNA)

Technical Service Escalation Process

Management Escalation

The Management Escalation Plan describes the process and people involved in escalating project issues. The Project Escalation Plan will be used to surface all critical items that potentially have an impact on the project.

AGT believes that it is essential that critical items effecting the project schedule, scope, quality, and cost, be undertaken as soon as possible. This will allow adequate time for corrective action.

Conflict Resolution Plan

A plan for conflict resolution is vital to the success on any on-going operations service contract. Through a solid Governance Plan that provides for structured communications and a well defined project plan the need for conflict resolution should be minimal if any. However, even with the best vendor/customer relationships a need for conflict resolution may present itself.

Web-based Trouble Reporting

AGT delivers its customers, at no additional charge, our Web based Trouble Ticketing system and inventory management database (VTC Manager). Customers can log support directly into AGT's trouble ticketing service at www.vtcmanager.com for 24/7 trouble ticket generation, timely trouble review and reporting, and live electronic support when available. AGT enables web-based, on-line entry by the end-user (Login and passwords required). All web-based Trouble Tickets generated have automatic email and pager notifications, escalating tickets to the appropriate personnel. To create your own personal user login, requests are sent to support@appliedglobal.com.

AGT will, at the customer's direction, include appropriate email notification audit trail for all trouble tickets. The AGT Technician(s) will also enter all calls to the TAC support line into the system, thus providing the customer with the technical actions taken to resolve the problem. Also, the customer will direct AGT to configure the trouble ticketing system for access by necessary customer personnel.

Trouble Ticketing System

This system is currently marketed by Polycorn and is sold on per network resource basis where a "resource" has been defined as an end point, an MCU, or a Gateway. The Trouble Ticketing system is accessed on the World Wide Web via an Internet Explorer web browser. The trouble ticketing system allows users to enter a trouble ticket via the web. When a trouble ticket is entered into the system, an automatic email notification will be generated to the customer or AGT assigned personnel whichever the organization would prefer. All updates to a trouble ticket will generate an automatic e-mail notification to assigned personnel. Once a ticket is closed, the ticket generates an automatic email notification to all assigned personnel as defined by the customer.

System administrators are able to log on to the system and view a report of all currently open tickets in a real-time, up to the moment detailed fashion. The Administrators are able to log onto a specific location and view all "OPENed" or "CLOSEed" tickets for that location. The Trouble Ticketing system lists all customer VTC sites and the disposition of any existing tickets.

The inventory management database contains the following information:

- Site Name
- Site Address
- Site Contact Name
- Site Contact Phone Number
- Site Contact Fax Number
- Site Photo Uploaded to Main Page
- General Comments Section
- Circuit ID
- Installation Date
- Warranty Expiration Date
- Equipment Serial Numbers

The Site Listing should contain the following Links

- Equipment List Tab
 - List all VTC equipment at site
 - List type of VTC equipment
 - List manufacturer
 - List all serial numbers
 - List all Government ID Tag numbers
- Log Trouble Ticket Tab
- View Trouble Ticket Tab

AGT will work directly with the customer's end users or administrators. AGT should be notified of all trouble related issues. A customer should place trouble calls to AGT Technical Assistance Center (TAC).

Labor Breakdown/Categories

Level of Effort

Control Programming

New Installs

After determining the customer's requirements and reviewing the quoted equipment list an initial touch panel design will be presented to the customer for approval. An AGT Engineer or Programmer will explain in detail the functionality of the touch panel design. If the customer requires changes made that will not affect the equipment list then changes will be made and the new touch panel design will be presented to the customer for approval. If the customer requires changes made that will require additional equipment then a mod to the contract will be required. A quote for the additional equipment and/or additional programming/engineering fees will be presented for approval. Design changes may extend the original agreed upon delivery date.

The customer must approve the touch panel layout, in the form of a signed design or a Control Design Acceptance Form, prior to the scheduled installation of the multimedia room. Once the design has been approved only minor cosmetic changes will be made.

Modifications of Existing Programs Created by Other Vendors

The customer is responsible for providing the latest code that is loaded on their control system.

NOTE: There is the possibility that the determination of the revision of code will not be able to be determined until AGT tries to load the new code and realizes that equipment that was not part of the modification no longer functions.

Failure to do so will result in a mod to the contract and may extend the original agreed upon delivery date. A quote for the additional equipment and/or additional programming/engineering fees will be presented for approval.

- Initial interview with customer to determine Touch Panel layouts and functionality.
- Sample GUI will be provided to the customer for approval.
- Once installed and tested the customer will be allowed one more round of revisions.
- Control Code and Touch Panel Code will be delivered to the customer. AGT will not retain the right as intellectual property.

Installation/Integration/User Training

Upon approval of Project Schedule and Notice of Site Readiness, equipment installation will begin as planned. Install tasks include:

- Unpacking of original shipping containers
- Physical inspection of equipment prior to installation
- Installing and configuring equipment as per customer requirements
- Connection to the provided network interface device
- Installation of any peripheral equipment with provided cables/extender cables
- Route and tie wrap all cables in accordance with provided site survey documentation
- Perform power up tests, initial system configuration, and system diagnostics
- Verify the system is operating in accordance with all provided specifications
- Ensure area is cleaned and trash removed and placed for pickup at a customer designated site

The following services are NOT provided by AGT:

- Any modifications not included in the site survey/work order documentation
- Relocation of existing equipment unless previously ordered
- Installation of equipment not called out in the site survey/work order documentation

End-User Responsibilities

- End user should provide a single point of contact to coordinate all installation activities. End user is responsible for all furniture, electrical, and network services.
- Network connections must be provided at the equipment location on standard communication wall jacks.
- Compliance with national and local building, electrical, fire, and earthquake codes are the end user's responsibility.
- End user facilities personnel are responsible for the installation of any fixtures prior to the scheduled installation date.
- End user is responsible for the movement of equipment from the dock to the room.
- Installation includes testing and successful local loop-back. The Customer is responsible for verification of correct network provisioning, including end-to-end test and premise wiring, prior to the scheduled installation date.
- Most systems provide some form of remote diagnostic capability. Appropriate direct-dial, analog phone lines are required. At least one additional line, with a handset should be provided to allow the technician and/or end-user to work with the Technical Assistance Center in resolving problems.

- Facilities and network systems should be available throughout the scheduled installation and at least one (1) working day thereafter.
- Communications personnel should be available to resolve any issues which may arise during the installation.
- Have appropriate personnel (up to four individuals) available to attend the Class User Training.
- Sign Customer Acceptance Form, which indicates successful installation and training.

Training

The training program, developed and written by AGT, ensures that all end-user personnel have a working knowledge of the Audio/Visual Integrated Room and an in-depth knowledge of its operation and usage. Much of the course time involves hands-on usage by the students. The following objectives are covered during the comprehensive course:

- • Generic breakdown of equipment used in a conference
- • Network requirements and an explanation of each
- • Overview of installed conferencing system
- • Operational demonstration of each piece of equipment and its features
- • In-depth demonstration of system operations using the Touch Panels (GUI)
- • Basic troubleshooting techniques and trouble reporting procedures
- • Hands-on operation

Training shall not exceed 4 hours and will commence immediately following the installation. The length of the training program is dependent on size of the class, computer knowledge of the class, and complexity of the system. In the event that training cannot be accomplished while on-site, either due to a customer scheduling conflict or network outage, an optional 2hour remote session will be provided via videoconferencing.

Acceptance Testing

At the completion of the installation and training, acceptance testing will be done with customer personnel to verify that the system operates as specified. Any customer concerns will be documented and addressed at this time. The acceptance testing has the following objectives:

- • Verify all hardware is installed and operational, all cables tie-wrapped and marked, and area cleaned
- • Verify all software is installed, operational and of current issue
- • Verify all required documentation is present
- • Ensure all training criteria have been met to customer satisfaction

Upon completion of acceptance testing, AGT will present a customer acceptance form to be signed by AGT and an authorized customer representative. See the attached exhibit at the end of this document.
